Performance Management Appraisal

Guidelines

Must do, Should do, Could do

PQPOC Professionalism &amp; Quality	Performance Management Appraisal	Version 1
Must do, Should do, Could do - Guidelines

1. Objective:

- To shape and sustain the High Performance Culture in PQPOC to enable the delivery of superior business results
- To structure approach for an effective management of individual performance that will support the Company to attract and retain high performing individuals with distinctive values and competencies.

2. Guiding Principles

- Performance management serves as a tool to improve business performance and drive business results by ensuring goals are aligned, targets and competencies are defined and people are held accountable to create a high-performance culture.
- Performance management provides the platform for competency development and identification of differentiated growth or development opportunities to ensure sustainable pipeline of talents for current and future business needs.
- Performance management review and appraisal must be fair, objective and provides ratings that send the right message.

3. Roles of Superior

- a. Communicate and explain clearly specific goals and how these are linked to the business objectives
- b. Cascade own Goal setting to subordinate.
- c. Lead and guide subordinate(s) in developing of performance objectives in accordance to SMART principle.
- d. Review subordinate's annual and monthly Goal setting. Perform the assessment of subordinate's annual and monthly performance.
- e. Lead the discussion during expectation setting session.
- f. Ensure completion of subordinate's Goal setting and approved by deadline given.

4. Roles of Subordinates

- a. Prepare own Goal setting and self-assessment (annual and monthly). Provide relevant evidences to support the performance appraisal.
- b. Identify development needs and propose own Personal Development Plan (PDP).
- c. Initiate the discussion with Superior and being actively involved in the discussion during the Expectation Setting session to finalise own Goal setting.
- d. Create and discuss and agree with superior within stipulated timeframe.

5. SMART Objectives

6. What Are MSCs?

7. Performance Rating Scales

7.1 Performance Rating Scale

Improvement Opportunity	1
Meets Expectation	2
Exceeds Expectation	3
Exceeds many Expectations	4

7.2 Performance Calculating Method

No	Rating	Criteria (Achievement of MSCs)
1	Improvement Opportunity	Achieves 1-3 out of 4 Must-Do Goals (*) (1 mark)
2	Meets Expectation	Achieves 4 out of 4 Must-Do Goals (achieve 100%) (2 marks)
3	Exceeds Expectation	Achieves 4 Must-Do Goals and 1 Should-Do (3 marks)
4	Exceeds many Expectation	Achieves 4 Must-Do and 2 Should-Do Goals (4 marks)
5	Outstanding	Achieves 4 Must-Do and 2 Should-Do and 1 Could-Do () (5 marks)

Notes:

(*) The above 04 Must do is typical, Must do can be more or less however, in principle, the core objectives must be appropriate assigned within the month.

(**) Setting and appraise MSC are based on completion of milestone; monthly MSC is breakdown of yearly MSC tasks.

In case the performance results do not match with the above standard model, the calculation shall base on the following:

- Should do : ½ mark (maximum 1 mark)
- Could do : ½ mark (maximum ½ mark)

Additional notes (Year end performance)

- The calculation is based on the average of actual working months;
- Achieve better set KPI (cost saving, ahead schedule...) : plus ½ mark (maximum);
- Staff those receive the Certificates, Prizes (ad hoc): plus ½ mark (maximum);
- Staff those violated Company's regulations: minus ½ mark (maximum);
- Staff achieved monthly Must do, however, do not meet yearly Must do objectives: minus ½ mark/Must do (maximum 1 mark) except the beyond control cases.
